

It is awful as usual that the government is attempting to take away from the little bit of freedom which we have left. I pay each month for XM service to be able to benefit from the services which are offered.